

DEBBIE BOND - American blues singer, guitar player, and songwriter has been performing for decades in the Alabama backwoods and is now a regular on the Southern US and European club and festival circuit. Influenced by raw juke joint blues and the famed sounds of Muscle Shoals, Debbie's impressive story includes years of performing with traditional Alabama blues musicians, like Johnny Shines, Eddie Kirkland, Willie King, Shar Baby, Little Jimmy Reed and more.

Immersion in Alabama roots music has deeply flavored her guitar playing, soulful voice and original song writing, giving her a contemporary and original sound, with soul, blues, and jazz influences. Debbie's collaboration with British born keyboard and harmonica player "Radiator" Rick has added a swampy New Orleans edge to her sound.

Debbie is a blues activist and founder of the Alabama Blues Project, a non-profit dedicated to promoting and preserving the state's blues heritage. She is the recipient of numerous awards for her blues education work, has been recognized by the Alabama Music Hall of Fame, and the national Blues Hall of Fame.

"Raw energy, Alabama blues, from the premiere ambassador for the genre." Blues Blast Magazine (US)

"A stormer of a set, a taste of what to look out for on this UK tour from one of Alabama's finest blues outfits. Alabama blues delivered with fire and flair . . . anyone looking for a worthwhile gig should look no further than Bond and her band." Blues Matters (UK)

"Bond has sure paid her dues over the years working alongside such notables as the late Willie King, where she was a band member and with the legendary Johnny Shines, an old road-buddy of Robert Johnson. With such a heritage and background, it comes as no surprise to find this bit of true blues gold. Blues for our times from a lady who knows what she's about." Blues Magazine (NL)

"Debbie Bond headlined the Broomfield Blues series under the theme of 'Women Sing the Blues' and delighted an audience of close to 500 with her easy going Southern charm and thought provoking songs, all backed by top drawer musicians." Broomfield Blues (UK)

"A little bit of soul, some down home blues, clever lyrics, excellent musicians and angelic voice. That's what you experience with Debbie Bond. A true original in every sense of the word." Maxwell Russell, Shoals Songwriter Showcase, Muscle Shoals (US)
