

The Red Barn, Sokol Park, 5901 Watermelon Rd, Northport, AL 35473

The Red Barn is in Sokol Park, very close to, and almost opposite, the Will May Dog Park.

The easiest way to find the Red Barn is to enter Sokol Park from New Watermelon Road. After a few 100 yards the road will fork. Take the right fork and then turn left into the parking lot (see "Parking" below). The barn is a short walk from the parking lot.

If you enter the park from Watermelon Road, follow the road for about 1/2 mile, and you will pass the Will May Dog Park on your right. The Red Barn will be on your left, just after the dog park. Take the first turning to the left, and then left again into the parking lot. The barn is a short walk from the parking lot.
